

Endoscopy Decontamination for Users and Operators

Practical guidance for endoscope decontamination compliance, robust tracking and tracing procedures and ensuring quality management systems

📺 Online Workshop

📅 Thu 21 Oct 2021 09:30-15:10

Endoscopy Decontamination for Users and Operators

Full agenda: Thursday 21st October | 9.30 registration- 3.10pm close

Workshop leader: share in first-hand experience with Helen Campbell, Chair of Wales and Southwest Branch of the IDSc and Shadow Director of Education, Institute for Decontamination Science

Event information: highlights of the programme

Take away practical approaches with this relevant and useful guide for managing and understanding decontamination:

- Following JAG guidelines: understanding and overcoming the common challenges
- Improving tracking and tracing: guidance on Getting It Right First Time (GIRFT) for your trust
- How to achieve ISO 13485: what you need to know
- Practical approach for advancing your infection control and minimising outbreaks

Expected attendees: audience insight

This specialised endoscopy decontamination online workshop will provide a useful guide to standards, challenges and technical procedures and has been designed for attendance from:

- Endoscopy Technicians
- Sterile Services Manager and Deputy Manager HSSD
- Decontamination Manager and Endoscopy Decontamination Supervisor
- Clinical Support Worker and Senior Clinical Support Worker
- Endoscopy Sister and Staff Nurse
- Director of Decontamination Services

Pricing structure: price and attendance

- £299 + VAT for one NHS or public sector place
- £249 + VAT (each) for two or three NHS or public sector places
- £599 + VAT for one commercial organisation place

Commercial companies are also invited to sponsor this day, please email Sarah Kemm for further details.