

Developing your Role as an Endoscopy Technician

Bespoke training to reduce the incorrect processing of scopes, achieve JAG guidelines and improve your decontamination practices

 Online Workshop

 Thur 21 Jul 2022 09:30-15:30

Developing your Role as an Endoscopy Technician

Full agenda: Thursday 21st July | 9.30am registration- 3.30pm close

Workshop leader: Helen Campbell from the Institute of Decontamination Science has been described as “Very interesting, invigorating and a great knowledgeable speaker. Lots of experiences to share and allows great networking input and forward thinking” as well as a “Fantastic, approachable educator”. It is now your turn to benefit from her expertise.

Event information: highlights of the programme

Are you trying to understand the structure of a sterile service? Or are you looking to improve your team’s practice and gain recognition? If yes, then this is the workshop for you. Book your place and focus on:

- Ensuring robust tracking and traceability protocols
- Achieving JAG accreditation
- Exploring the benefits of offsite endoscopy decontamination
- Establishing a highly trained team
- Preventing infections with the best possible sterilisation practices
- Reducing the heavy reliance on machines and ensuring contingency plans

Pricing structure: price and attendance

- £349 + VAT for one NHS or public sector place
- £299 + VAT (each) for two or three NHS or public sector places
- £599 + VAT for one commercial organisation place

You or a colleague can claim the £299 + VAT NHS discount, for booking two or more places, if you also book onto:

- How to Build a Successful NHS Business Case
- Compassionate and Supportive Leadership Skills

Commercial companies are also invited to sponsor this day, please email Sarah Kemm for further details.