Event information: highlights of the programme

This unique day was previously described as ‘Really helpful and enjoyable training. Pitched just right. I learnt a great deal, despite having worked in research contracts for several years and feel more confident about negotiating about the areas covered.’ Your step by step guide:

- Examine the nuances of clinical research contracts and overview NHS indemnity
- Explore the suite of model contracts: what they cover and when to use them
- Share examples of common areas of negotiation and modifications, and avoiding classic pitfalls
- Gain a guide to Material Transfer Agreements: when might the protocol be enough?
- Identify how to avoid disputes and safeguard your interests

Expected attendees: audience insight

Aimed at clinical research staff at all levels, this is a participative seminar is ideal for:

- Clinical Researchers: focusing on the overall budgets and finances
- Finance Officers and Accountants: dedicated to keeping track of costs, income and invoicing
- Trial Co-ordinators: responsible for gathering costs and inputting figures for clinical trials
